An invitation to leave people and places
better than when you found them.

A bit about you

Learn how to grow and scale businesses.

You're hungry, humble and smart.

You want to build on your business experience to date. But not just to learn, you want to experience the reality of being part of a team that accelerates the potential & impact of businesses.

You want to see what actually happens in board meetings and lead them, learn how sales are made and land some, understand what great hires look like and nurture them

Your solid grounding to date makes you confident to share your knowledge to help others.

In the role you'll learn from the team that have been there and have got the scars and stories.

You may want a shift in your career, you could have hit a glass ceiling, or you may just be looking for your tribe. Whatever the reason, this sounds like the right move.

Form

A bit about us ...

Form is a global strategy and leadership consultancy.

We create spaces where leaders and their organisations are transformed through ground-breaking content, unique experiences and inspirational environments.

We are privileged to be trusted partners by some of the most dynamic creative, digital and technology companies around the world, including Crema, Orcha and &us.

Our team is made up of smart and compassionate individuals who thrive on delivering transformational client experiences. We are all committed to doing our best work at Form, stretching ourselves and others in the process.

Our delivery includes running global innovation study trips to cities including Berlin, Copenhagen & NYC, curating leadership retreats in rural Wales, and bespoke Consultancy, all focused on creating growth and impact for our clients.

The opportunity

You'll be in the thick of it

Day to day you'll spend your time working with our team doing three things;

1. Winning new work
2. Curation/creation of content
3. Delivering the content to clients

You'll be involved in all aspects of internal and external work. You'll be encouraged to step into areas of contribution where appropriate.

Consultancy isn't MacBook Pro's and travel. Quite the opposite. There is a lot of time spent understanding what's really happening, moving past the presenting issues and getting deep into the roots. Then crafting the solution to help the client achieve the change they are looking for. All whilst creating a fantastic customer experience.

The learning curve will be steep, but you'll grow and flourish as your confidence and contribution increase.

About you

You're happy to say yes and figure it out.

At Form we have 4 values that shape the way we work. These are to:

- Create Clarity
- Live Generously
- Believe in People
- Be Trusted Guides

If you cut us, they are at our core, and they'll need to be at yours too. There is much more detail about these on our website, but you'll already be able to recognise these at work in you.

You will be comfortable around people, starting conversations, leading workshops and presenting and will be able to grasp tools, models and processes quickly.

Your appetite for new models, tools and processes is matched by your ability to work with all kinds of people.

We don't expect you to know everything, quite the opposite, we expect you to be a keen learner - to want to know and to want to understand.

The role

The details

This is as much about us being right for you, as it is you being right for us.

- We imagine you've got 5+ years experience in the Digital, Creative or Tech industries
- We imagine that you'd need to travel a few days a month in the UK and occasionally in the EU or US
- You'll get a company laptop & phone (yes, it is a Mac)
- You'll get 22 days annual leave increasing over time
- We're in the office 1-2 days a week in Liverpool, so we'd love you to be able to join in as much as is realistic depending on your location
- You can expect a competitive salary, health insurance and pension contributions
